A SUICIDE is reported from the district of Hanamaulu. A Chinaman' whose name is unknown, hanged himself. An inquest was held before Mr. Deverill, Acting Sheriff of Kauai, resulting in the verdict. " Died by his own hands." It is understood that the Queen's Birthday will probably be celebrated by the members of the British Benevolent Society, by a ball in the Music Hall, Those who have tried it are anxious to have another dance on the new floor of that commodious building, and those who have only heard about it are equally anxious to try what the new floor is like for A survey is being made of the valuable block corner of Hotel and Nuuanu streets, known as the Long estate. When a plan is approved by the Court, the property will be sold in suitable lots. The International Hotel and the Empire Saloon and numerous other business premises stand on this block. Mr. C. J. Lyons is making the survey.

enquiry made to him on the subject, informs Marshal Parke that " Mr. Adams says no one said anything to him about Nor prosecuting Quin for sellng or giving liquor." The statement being current n Lahaina that "some one in authority" had interposed to prevent a prosecution, it is satisfactory to have this contradiction. Mr. Newton further says that Mr. A. This helped to bring the frightened animal to a stand. THE "Gazette," in its issue of 3rd inst., makes lengthy comment on a State document which has not yet been given to the public-the Report of the Minister of Finance, which, though presented in manuscript on Tuesday, was neither read to the Assembly nor circulated in a printed form. Its contents were, therefore, not known even to members of the House-only to the officials who prepared it, and the firm to whom the work of printing it was confided. The course pursued by the latter is a grave breach of etiquette. A CHINAMAN named Kan On, was arrested last week at Kapaa, Kauai, for selling liquor without a

THERE is now on exhibition, at Messrs, G. W. Macfarlane & Co.'s, a beautiful display of oilpaintings, water-colors, and colored photographs, from the celebrated Art Gallery of Morris & Kennedy, of San Francisco, comprising a selected invoice from the art treasures of that well-known Gallery. The most noticeable of the collection is Francisco. The composition is graceful, and the change, that could have been readily done without personal reflections being made.

Something well worthy of record occurred at the artist in his very best vein. We can safely say Kaumakapili Church on Sunday last. In response | that nothing approaching these two pieces, in scene is also deserving of attention. The peculiar effect of atmosphere is well handled, and the luxuriant richness of the vegetation, and the peaceful serenity of the scene makes it a truly charming picture. Mr. Bush is an artist of extended reputation, and justly celebrated for his studies of tropical scenery. There are also several exquisitelycolored photographs from celebrated masters, which will not fail to attract general attention, among whom are noticed the names of Vibert, Gerome, Wagner, Marck, and others of equal celebrity. We understand that a portion of this collection will be on view at the Art Loan Exhi-

Our report of Legislative proceedings for Thurs- gate, but simply to clear the constables if posibles. In the copy he says that the constables went again in the evening, which is another misrepresentation, as it was nearly 11 o'clock at night when all the Chinamen had gone to sleep, and being disturbed at midnight some of them turned out to see what was up ; the Chinamen at once being ordered by the constables to go back to their rooms, otherwise they would be shot at ; meantime Mr. Kauapena, head constable of Hanalei had gone to the room of the Chinamen who were to be arrested, which he effected without opposition. The Chinamen having probably gathered a little closer, and discussing the matter when ordered again to go to their rooms, though they had at least that much right to stand in front of their rooms, this the constables thought they had not, and very uneremoniously fired in four different directions nto them, and with such indiscretion that Kauapena, who was just coming to the outside with his prisoner, had to shout to them not to fire in that direction, being sfraid that they, in their folly would shoot him also. That there has been a screw loose somewhere is very apparent, because the following day a party of constables, five or six, armed with rifles and shot-guns went to the mill to arrest a Chinaman on a charge of halele hana ; they went as if they were going to arrest a murderer; but Mr. Riedel objected to their flerce proceedings and did not permit them to enter the mill, but allowed one constable without firearms to arrest the man as pencably as the day previous, this being in broad day light shows that the constables must have been at their wit's end. Being one that would like to see justice meted out to a Chinamen as well as to any other man, I am sorry the investigation is accepted as it stands. Being informed that Marshal Parke has already been communicated with from the police headquarters of Kanai, 'I don't think any more will be done in the matter, and the poor Chinaman will have to accept his being crippled for life, with as good a grace as he can. By giving this a space in your valuable paper you would confer a favor.

Yours very truly, CHAS. KOELLING.

HANALEI, KAUAI, April 26th, 1882. MR, EDITOR: Seeing an article published in the Gazette's issue of April 5th, that I made a statement at the investigation held by Mr. Deverill at Hanalei which proved perfectly false; I respectfully wish to say that Sheriff Wilcox and his deputy Deverill as public officers are very unreliable, as I know of no investigation held at Hanalci, where I was present. Had Sheriff Wilcox desired an investigation of the shooting affair, he would have sent a truthful and efficient officer to investigate the matter; but as it is, Mr. Deverill went through the farce of clearing the indiscreet constables who are not fit to hold a commission, to Mr. Deverill's judg-ment. How can an officer, sworn to do his duty tell; the public such utter false statement, and blackmail people by whom he is sustained? Did people all over the islands know Mr. Deverill as well as the residents of Kauai, I would forgo the trouble of answering his malicious state-

I hope Marshal Parke entertains a higher ense of justice and duty, which he is sworn to perform faithfully, and will hold an investigation of the shooting affair which occurred on the 19th day of March, 1882, at Hanalei, and place the true facts before the public. By giving this a space in your valuable paper

RICHARD GERKE.

Mr. EDITOR:—Allow me a small portion of your space in self-vindication. I have been a resident these Islands seventeen years, about eight of hich I have been a trader and agriculturist at Waialua, on this Island. During the whole of that time, I have never been implicated in any violation of law, and can confidently say that I have borne a fair character among those who know me. Recently, however, a charge was brought against me of selling spirituous liquors, contrary to law. At the trial I proved clearly that at the time and place of the alleged offense I was many miles away, in Honolulu. Immediately on being discharged, and before leaving the Court-room, I was again arrested on a charge of having committed the like offense, some time during the year previous to February last. Now, if this last charge is true, and can be fairly substantiated, why was it not made before I was found not guilty of the charge of selling in March, 1882? The police authorities may not intend to persecute me, in the course they have pursued; but I feel that in the injury that is being done to my good name, it amounts to that, L. AHUNA.

Mn. Enrron:—At the present moment the ques-tion most freely discussed in this city is "Total Prohibition" or "Free Liquor," and as an un-biassed observer, I would wish to offer a few suggestions on the subject. The augar planters, at their late meeting, passed a unanimous recommendation to the Government that a prohibitory law should be enacted, their action being prompted chiefly by their own interested motives. As a striking proof of their sincerity in the matter, rumor states that sundry intoxicants were used at their dinner prior to dispersing to their respective districts. At the time many expressions in reference to the virtue of self-denial were made, and at the mass meeting held last evening, "self-denial" was again frequently landed by the different speakers. I find that for the two years ending March 31, 1882, the total receipts from duties, storage and licenses on liquor, exceeded the sum 3464,000, or more than half of the total revenue derived from the Custom-house duties during the same period. By passing a prohibitory law, the Government would be deprived of such revenue, which must be procured from some other quarter in order to meet the current appropriations. I would suggest that the self-denial we hear so much about should be practiced a little by the planters and other agitators, by their agreeing to a tax on all sugar exported from the country sufficient to cover the deficiency the Act would cause in the revenue. This would be a simple mode of overcoming the difficulty, and would probably be alike approved by the planters, the Government, and the members of the community who object to being additionally taxed in order to satisfy the demands of the gentlemen at present riding the Honolulu, May 5, 1882.
